

Elections Monday the 17th at 4:30pm. @Presidents, if you have to dip out at any point please try to find a proxy that can vote for your dorm in your place!

i3/RAC

Working through i3 reviews right now!

have not heard from the numbered New Houses, La Casa, Chocolate City, or Random. Otherwise waiting on New Vassar to submit their stuff and other dorms to finish their edits.

JudComm

Finalizing ideas for elections (will be Monday 5/17 at 4:30 PM)

Working with Anna on sending out an announcement for that to dormspam + Prez

Writing amendment to make clear setting election data/time

Tech Chair

New page on the website for elections: <https://dormcon.mit.edu/about/elections>

new website @ dormcon.mit.edu. Please let me know if there's anything this new site needs/lacks, and I can get on it. Thanks!

P/VP and Housing

If there are any policy changes on campus you'd like to see before the end of the semester, let us know

Pitched Sophomore REX today - seemed to go well! Reviewing survey responses at our next meeting

Survey closes Sunday at 11:59pm so far response rate is pretty good, but still encourage your dorms to fill it out

Hoping to have concrete info to share around the time that 2024 assignments go out

Talked to Suzy last week about DEI in residential life - getting stats like the ones that exist for 2015-2016, structural changes we can make to create more inclusive spaces & support living groups that are predominantly URMs, things of that nature

Sent out an email to through the alumni association to DormCon alums so we can connect with them (yay)
